Truckee Loses Baseball Game To Nevada City

Black and White Signed For Game Sunday In Lincoln

In the last half of the seventh inning Nevada City piled up 13 runs in Sunday's game there and defeated Truckee 20 to 7, after the Truckee team had played a good, tight game.

Truckee's trouble started in the third inning when a line drive cracked against Pitcher Ted LaTona's knee, forcing him to retire from the game. Karl Kielhofer, who had been unable to start the game because of a sore pitching arm, went in and held the hometowners down to an even 7 to 7 when Nevada City went to bat in the fatal seventh.

During the seventh inning, 17 men went to bat for Nevada City, 10 of them hit and three walked. In that inning, Kielhofer's arm went sour and he allowed two hits and walked a man before he left the mound with the score still tied. Frank Giovannoni went in from third base to pitch but was soon found by the Nevada Cityans and was clipped for four hits and walked one before he was replaced by Willie Curran from left field. Curran was hit four times before he retired the side. No runs were scored by either side after the seventh.

LaTona's knee will prevent him from playing for some time and he has been released. The local directors signed up Bill Black, a Reno Turf Club chucker, for Sunday's game at Lincoln. The game Sunday will be started at noon to provide for the Lincoln Rodeo to be held later that day, Business Manager R. N. Little said.

Mel White of Tahoe has been signed as an infielder and John Stephens, who has been playing first for Truckee, has also asked to be released.

Harvey Martin, shortstop, led the hitting for Truckee, getting three hits, one a homer, in his five trips. Curran got two for four as did Mike Korich and Joe Bernard.

Two base hits were scored by Baxter, Boucher, Bernard and Korich for the Mountaineers and Curran clouted a triple.

Aside from that terrific struggle in the seventh, the teams played even ball, with Paul Tamo pitching a consistent game for Nevada City but nevertheless allowing 13 hits.

Tahoe Couple Married 59 Years

* * *

Herman Wilkies Observe Golden Wedding At Alameda

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tucker of Tahoe Vista Sunday observed their 59th wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Andrew Sorensen, well known Tahoe Vista resident.

The Tuckers were married on June 5th, 1890, at St. Helena, California, and lived in Calistoga, Napa County, most of their lives. They have raised seven children who are all living and have 12 grand children and nine great-grandchildren.

The couple moved to San Mateo in 1920 and more recently came to Tahoe where they make their home near their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sorensen. They are both active and enjoy their lake home to the fullest extent.

May Tucker was the niece of the founders of the Starr Flour Mill at Vallejo, founded in 1860. Henry Tucker is the grandson of the late Resin P. Tucker of Donner Party fame and the son of George Tucker who, although only 14 years of age at the time, was a member of the first rescue party from Sacramento which attempted to save the ill-fated Donner Party stranded near Donner Lake in 1847.

Best wishes of this entire region are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Tucker on the occasion of their anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wilkie celebrated their Golden Wedding day on May 25. A buffet supper was served by their daughters at the Herman Wilkie home in Alameda where they were married 50 years ago.

Wilkie was born 83 years ago in Dutch Flat. His family, the Wilkies and the Krugers, have had property there for over 90 years. He had two brothers and two sisters, three still living—William Wilkie, formerly of Truckee now in San Francisco; Mrs. Mary Black and Miss Bertha Wilkie.

Mrs. Wilkie is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Plummer. Her family were very prominent in early California history.

The Wilkies lived in Truckee in their early married life where he owned a mercantile store. Later he owned a grocery store in Alameda.

REALIGNED ROAD AT LAKE TAHOE IS BEING SOUGHT

Officials of the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Association and the Lake Tahoe Chamber of Commerce met with state chamber of commerce officials and District Highway Superintendent Charles Whitmore of Marysville at Bijou last night to discuss highway needs at the lake.

The association, represented by Secretary Henry Droste and George Kehlet of Meeks Bay, proposed that when funds became available that the Emerald Bay section of the highway, now narrow and inadequate for the travel, be realigned from Rubicon Point to Tallac Fish Hatchery.

The two officials also suggested larger directional signs at the Truckee-Tahoe wye which should be illuminated.

Realigning of the Emerald Bay lateral was proposed as the most important step needed at the lake, with straightening and widening of the same section offered as an alternate suggestion.

Volunteers' Fast Work Cuts Damage by Fire

Prompt action by the Truckee Volunteer Fire Department saved the home of Amedeo Nieri from destruction Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The roof and ceilings of the interior were damaged but there was no other loss.

HOBART WORKERS CREDITED WITH HALTING BLAZE

Workmen at Hobart Mills were credited with preventing a serious forest fire yesterday near Prosser Creek one mile west ot the lumbering community. After sighting the blaze, blamed on recent lightning storms, the men reported and set to work to confine it to a quarter-acre area until Forest Service suppression crews, directed by William Curran, arrived to finish it off.

Curran again warned that the official fire season is now on and written burning permits are required for any outdoor burning in the Truckee-Tahoe area. Burning is limited to the hours from 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. This is done to aid the Forest Service in detecting forest fires, Curran explained.

Truckee River Basin Has Storage Increase

Impressive Rites For Graduation Of Local Classes

Grammar School Stays In Session to Make Up Time Lost

Impressive graduation exercises were held last night at Donner Theater for 21 grammar school and eight high school students.

Graduation followed the high school baccalaureate services at the same place Sunday afternoon when Rev. Oscar Swenson was the speaker. The program was well rehearsed and nicely presented. Counter attractions were held responsible for the rather disappointing audience but those attending thoroughly enjoyed the affair.

The theater was decorated beautifully by Mr. and Mrs. Vern Shattuck, who donated the theater and supplied the abundant decorations of cut flowers for both baccalaureate and graduation.

The program was carried out as published in the Sun last week with Everett O'Rourke, superintendent of the Tahoe Truckee Unified School District, making the principal address of the evening. His subject, "The Future of Youth in America," was inspiring and thoughtful and made a good impression on the audience as well as the graduates.

Diplomas were presented to the graduating class of the high school by Walter Loynd, president of the board. The grammar graduates received their diplomas in blank, although the county board of education approved graduation certificates for all 21 students of the eighth grade, as announced in the Sierra Sun last week by Walter A. Carlson, county superintendent of schools.

Philip Ladd, senior class president, extended class greetings and the response was given by Don Adee, junior class president. Clarence Dunkelbarger gave the valedictory and Betty Parkhurst the salutatory. Musical numbers by the glee clubs earned applause. The processional and recessional were played by Mrs. Esther B. Rich.

While the graduation marks the end of the school year for the high school, grammar school classes will continue until next week to make up the time required by the state for average daily attendance.

The grammar school enjoyed a picnic at Lake Tahoe Saturday and held their banquet at Donner Lake Lodge Tuesday night. The high school banquet was held at Donner Lake Lodge last week.

There is one organization which is vital to the continued development of Truckee and that is a strong, active Chamber of Commerce. With this thought in mind, the nominating committee from the chamber this week selected seven directors, each representing another organization in the community and all pledged to work to make the civic body a real asset. The names of these tentative directors will be submitted to the membership for approval, following which regular weekly meetings will be held for the sole purpose of promoting local progress. The help of every resident of the community is necessary to encourage these officers and promote local projects designed for area advancement. You can be a booster for your community by boosting your chamber of commerce.

This week marked a milestone in the academic progress of more than a score of Truckee's young people. At graduation ceremomnies here last night 21 grammar and eight high school students received their diplomas, representing long years of work and study. To these graduates we extend our heartiest best wishes and sincere congratulations.

One of the finest demonstrations of the way Truckee is behind its baseball club is shown in the attendance at out of town games. A large portion of the crowds attending games away from home are Truckee people, while the local contests attract as many fans as turn out in much larger cities. Even though Truckee is low on the percentage ladder in the league standings, the boys are doing their best and the fans know this and continue to support their team. It is a fine spirit of sportsmanship and quite typical of Truckee people.

VETS' SERVICE TO THIS AREA IS CURTAILED

Veterans in the Truckee area will be able to secure assistance pertaining to Veterans Administration benefits on Friday, June 24. A contact representative of the VA office at Reno will be at the Public Utility office on that date between 10 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Due to personnel and budgetary limitations, regularly scheduled itinerant service to Truckee is being discontinued, beginning July 1. Providing sufficient travel funds are allocated in the future, intermittent contact service will be provided your locality as the need arises.

Directors Named For Chamber Of Commerce Here

General Meet June 16th To Decide on Slate Offered

Efforts to revive interest in the Truckee Chamber of Commerce were made here this week with the appointment of a nominating committee by President William Porter and the subsequent selection of seven directors, each of whom has signified a willingness to devote sufficient time to the task to provide the community with a much needed civic organization.

The nominating committee, headed by Porter, met at Sarge's Monday at noon and selected tentative directors, each also representing another service organization or public group in the community so that as many local organizations as possible may be tied in on projects designed to benefit the area.

Those named include H. G. Loehr, county supervisor; Charles R. Heller, utility district and hospital district; Dave Rose, 20-30 Club; Raymond Scott, Lions Club; Earl Stice, American Legion and Southern Pacific; Olla Tonini, Wyethia and Parent Teachers, and Jack Wolert, Rotary Club.

Porter announced that a membership meeting will be held Thursday evening, June 16, during which the new directors will be elected and plans discussed for future projects.

Porter has been busy during recent weeks arranging a folder, which when completed will be one of the best illustrated and most complete advertising folders this area has ever produced. It is hoped, Porter said, to have the folders ready by the first part of July.

Only nine members turned out last Friday for the meeting at the Utility District office at which time the nominating committee was appointed and a brief report of the chamber's activities was given.

New Postoffice For Truckee Is Being Studied

Possible $160,000 Project On List of 27 In This District

Although there are still some differences to iron out, the House and Senate have generally agreed on legislation to initiate a long deferred public building program that would result in a number of new post office buildings throughout the United States, including a $160,000 post office for Truckee, according to word received from Representative Clair Engle.

Final adoption of the bill does not mean, however, that construction will get underway immediately, Engle added.

The legislation under consideration authorizes $40,000,000 to buy land and draw plans. If passed it then will be necessary to appropriate the money. If and when the initial steps are completed, legislation will be introduced to authorize construction which will be followed by a bill to appropriate the necessary funds, Engle explained. Assuming Congress decides to proceed with the program, it will be some time before construction can be started.

The big problem, of course, will be in deciding where the building are to be located. This is particularly true for California as the rapid growth of most cities and communities has outmoded present post office facilities. Under an old statute, the post office department will set up a list of post offices eligible to participate in the program.

Briefly, any post office that handles $10,000 a year or more in postal receipts will be on the eligible list. If construction funds are appropriated the post office department then will select the individual projects on the basis of need. It will figure out to about one to a congressional district.

There are 27 post offices on the eligible list in the second district.

Palo Altans Seek Help In Finding Pet Lost Near Schaeffer Mill

A heart tug tragedy in the loss of Trinket, a perpetual puppy, climaxed the weekend visit of the guests of Dr. Hugh David Phillips of Crystal Bay, Lake Tahoe.

Trinket is a small Welsh terrier who just never grew beyond puppy size, puppy playfulness or puppy appeal. Some people might think her a puppy airedale for she has the same build and coloring as an airedale. She has tan head, legs and body with black back saddle. Her frisky whiskers, upturned ears and tail, and dark brown eyes gave her a keen, whimsical expression that endeared her to everyone.

Trinket accompanied Mrs. Rodney Boone and Mrs. Phillips on a fishing expedition when they drove from Tahoe over the Truckee cut off to Schaeffer Mill Road. They parked in a picnic spot beyond the old mill toward the end of the Schaeffer road.

Trinket was enjoying her rugged outdoor jaunt, digging at pebbles on the shore of the stream. Daniel Boone, her young master, was busily engaged in trying out his new fly rod. The dog suddenly disappeared and failed to respond to hours of calling and searching.

The Boones will reward anyone finding Trinket. The reward offer appears in the Classified Ads column of this week's Sierra Sun.

Sewage Problem Topic Of Meeting Monday In Lake Community Hall

TAHOE— Twenty-five residents and property owners of Tahoe City on Monday night endorsed plans for the installation of a community sewage disposal plant for the town's growing population, estimated during the summer season at 200 or more.

A special meeting called for Monday night was opened by C. W. Vernon of Tahoe City, who turned the session over to James Wheat, Placer County's chief sanitarian, and H. J. Ongerth of the state bureau of sanitary engineering at Berkeley.

Wheat outlined the purpose of the meeting and expressed the belief that a community sewage system was necessary and believed the time to begin seeking the solution to the problem was now. He turned the meeting over to Ongerth who proceeded to give a comprehensive outline of the steps which should be taken to secure the necessary plant for Tahoe City and adjoining areas, if desired.

Individual Problem

Ongerth declared that each individual home, business anr resort area is directly responsible for his own sewage problems on his own property and if, during the present tour of inspection, they are found to be unsatisfactory a reasonable period will be given for correction. Ongerth made it clear the state health department has no authority to force installation of a community swage disposal plant here but advised it was the only method which would satisfactorily combat present conditions, caused in the Tahoe City area by a layer of clay only a short depth beneath topsoil which prevents ground absorbtion. Under existing conditions, a long wet spring with the ground filled with water makes the sewage problem almost insurmountable, especially on the flat terrain of Tahoe City.

Need Engineer

Ongerth advised Tahoe City to start the process of securing a community sewage system at once as the town is in better condition than most small communities and has the legal right to collect funds and build and operate such a system. The first step was the general agreement of the residents in procuring the system and then hiring a competent engineer to determine the needs of the community and give an estimate on the cost, which would be followed by a bond election. Annexation of outside areas would have to be determined by the residents.

Questions from the floor brought forth the following information: There are three ways to finance the project, by front foot or square foot assessment or to pay for the entire system by a community bond on overall valuation. Since Tahoe City residents are scattered, the 20 per cent of assessed property valuation permitted by law might not be sufficient to cover the expense. In that case, the trunk lines and plant could be financed by bond issue with lateral sewers financed through local assessments based on a front foot or square foot assessment basis.

May Get Aid

California now has an enabling act before the legislature. Should this pass, Tahoe City might then secure a federal loan to aid in the installation of the proposed sewage disposal plant here, Vernon said.

Vernon declared that in a recent survey in company with Engineer McAbee of the North Tahoe Public Utility District, the only spot he believed suitable for the proposed settling tank near town was close to the entrance of the old CCC camp at the entrance to Tahoe City where logs were unloaded in early days. A second tank for digesting disposal would be located in the high valley above town west of Bill Boyle's cross on the top of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club's hill in town. This, Ongerth declared, could be done feasibly although the cost might be high.

A petition was scheduled to be started at once to be presented to the Tahoe City Public Utility's board of directors, giving them the go ahead on the proposed sewage disposal system, after which a competent engineer will be employed to draw up the plans and estimates for further study.

Tahoe Letter

FROM SWANEE

Tahoe, June 6

Dear Tahoeites:

It's Monday again and still the weather remains uncertain. Sunday was beautiful but last night a heavy thunder storm preceded a downpour of rain and today thunder and lightning and lowering skies persist and rain is now falling.

Today is the birthday of Mrs. Bliss Hinkle, principal of Tahoe branch of Placer high school, who is a patient at University of California Hospital in San Francisco for an indefinite period. I joined many other Tahoeites in sending along felicitations for her natal day and wished her a speedy recovery. Because so many have expressed a desire to have her address that they might write her a cheery note, I am including it in my letter this week as letters to shut-in are always most welcome. It is University of California Hospital, Parnassus Avenue at 3rd Avenue, San Francisco 22, Room 322. Dr. George Hinkle reported on Monday that his wife is much improved at this writing. Dr. Hinkle is assisting until the end of the high school term, June 30, on the teaching staff of the local branch high school.

Latest word from the bedside of Terry Tollefson at Sun Valley Hospital is good. Seems Terry is making excellent progress toward recovery, although he still has a long, hard row to hoe. He is not yet able to sit in a wheel chair but has regained much of his energy and is in a cheerful frame of mind. Recently his school buddies sent him a gift of eight power binoculars which he can use to entertain himself from his hospital window. It looks down over the swimming pool, tennis court and riding paths and he will now be able to see what is going on in the world about him. As soon as he is able to sit in the wheel chair he will again take up his studies which had to be abandoned for the time being. He would have graduated with the current class had it not been for his unfortunate accident while skiing last winter.

It's gratifying to report that work has finally started on the new stretch of highway between Dollar Hill and Tahoe City. This 3.6 mile section has been surveyed many times but money was never available to complete the job. Now Glenn Fredrickson, road engineer, has crews engaged clearing brush at two sites, one above Blue Paradise and another near the Watson Mill. The work will consume all summer and is scheduled to be finished sometime in October, according to present calculations. Fredrickson and his family have leased the Wesley Donaldson home in Tahoe Pines for the season.

Another thrill will be forthcoming for Tahoeites in the very near future, before the week is out, in fact. On Thursday, Bette Davis, her husband and a maid are due in at Chambers' Lodge. She will be the feminine lead in a new picture, scenes of which will be shot at Tahoe. The title of the new vehicle is Beyond the Forest and Joseph Cotten will be leading man. Location Manager Kenneth Fox is here now and is lining up locales and needed personnel. Some scenes will be taken at the Drum Estate and some in the back countru of Tahoe. Shooting will cover a week or ten days. A crew of 100 is arriving from Hollywood before the end of the week. Warner Brothers are the producers. The company will be guests of Tahoe Inn and Chambers' Lodge while here.

Mrs. Louse Geier, president of the Women's Club of Tahoe announces that the first meeting of the 1949 season is being held in Tahoe Community Hall on Thursday, June 9, at 2 p.m. This will be for the purpose of closing all last year's business. The following meeting, on June 23, will be held for the election of new officers for the club year.

Want to thank our good friends, the J. G. Baldocchies of Antioch, who sent us Swansons up a large box of the most beautiful asparagus I've ever seen. I've been busy putting it up in the pressure cooker for winter. One of the spears measured 6⅛ inches in circumference, believe it or not.

Am relieved to learn that Mrs. Imon Mitchell of Sunnyside is much improved at this writing. She has been taking treatments from Dr. George Clarke of Lake Forest for a badly wrenched back which has kept her a semi-invalid during the past week or so. She motored to Sacramento over the weekend on business so know she is much better.

Was sorry to learn of the illness of Mrs. Bernie Bechdolt who at present is a patient at St. Mary's Hospital in Reno. Prior to being removed to Reno she had been ill in bed for four weeks. She is making satisfactory recovery and is expected to return home by the middle of this week. Her many friends wish her speedy and complete recovery.

Enjoying a week's vacation at their former resort, Valentine's Cabins now renamed Lakeside Cabins and owned by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Benson, are Mr. and Mrs. Carlton O. Valentine. They will visit in the bay area before returning to their residence at Costa Mesa in southern California.

Will ring off for the week with the best of good luck to all of you, as ever, Swanee.

Lake Civic Leaders At Session For Highway Discussions

TAHOE— Henry F. Droste, Fred Kehlet and Fred Perley, the latter secretary manager of the Lake Tahoe Chamber of Commerce, attended the dinner at Connolly's Resort at south Tahoe on Wednesday evening, June 8, for members of the state highway commission.

Droste and Kehlet, representing the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Association, were slated to join in discussions on improving highways around Lake Tahoe which are in need of realignment or improvement. One section which was on the agenda was that between Emerald Bay and Camp Richardson. This stretch is narrow and twisting with hairpins turns and obstructed curves which winds above and around famous Cascade Lake.

Fire District Tax Rate Boost Is Proposed At Meeting of Board

TAHOE— At a meeting at Conger's Cafe in Tahoe City on Monday noon, the Tahoe City Fire Commissioners outlined a new budget tax rate of 60 cents on each $100 assessed valuation for fiscal 1950. This is 4 cents higher than the previous year and will provide approximately $2200 for the district.

Expenses which loom include finishing and insulating the present temporary engine house and the purchase of an oil heater to keep the tank from freezing during severe winter weather. Additional equipment is needed by the volunteer fire department and the siren will be changed over to operate by remote control.

Fire Chief Al Henry Jr. and ten of his crew held a dinner meeting last Thursday night at Conger's Cafe.

Mrs. Vanni Up—

Mrs. Diamonte Vanni of San Francisco has arrived at the family residence in Tahoe City to spend the summer with her son Pete.

All money realized from the carnival will go into the Tahoe Lake PTA child welfare fund.

The last meeting for the season will be held in the school on the afternoon of June 23, after which all activities will be suspended until fall.

Auburn Visitor—

Miss Florence Vernon of Tahoe City returned Monday from a week's visit in Auburn at the home of Mrs. Dot Gwynn. Mrs. Gwynn and Mrs. Mayme Kitts of Auburn accompanied Miss Vernon on the return trip.

We buy everything we can from this man

He goes by a lot of names, lives in almost every town and city in the West, and even if you don't recognize his picture, you probably know him well. He's your local businessman...

Instead of centralizing all our buying, we make it a point wherever possible, to do business with people in the home towns we serve. Paper, pencils, paint, hose, carpentry, shovels, electric lights, engineering, pipe...all the things it takes to keep a company like ours going are bought on this basis.

Last year, more than 10,000 businesses in the West received orders from Standard of California for more than 100 million dollars worth of equipment, supplies and services.

PERFECTS SIMPLE CANCER DETECTOR

NEW YORK—A simplified and painless new method for detecting cancer has been perfected by Dr. S. A. Gladstone, Department of Pathology, Polyclinic Medical School and Hospital here, which may be performed in the physician's office without surgical biopsy.

The cancer test consists of rubbing a section of Gelfoam, a protein sponge, over the suspected area. Where cancer is present, the protein material picks up cancer cells. Clinically tested for more than a year, the new method did not fail once in more than 700 cases, and actually proved the presence of cancer in some cases where standard surgical biopsy procedure had failed to reveal it. Dr. Gladstone has just been awarded a New York Medical Society "scientific award" for his contribution to medical science.

Nevada County to Get $76,736 from In Lieu Automotive Tax Rebates

SACRAMENTO —(W. N. S.)— Revised estimates of in lieu motor vehicle tax funds to be paid to counties for the fiscal year 1949-50 were issued by State Controller Thomas H. Kuchel this week.

Under the revised estimate, the county of Nevada, which has a population of 19,283, is to receive $76,736. The population figures are based on the last census.

Under the revised estimates, the city of Grass Valley, population 5821, will receive $23,319.

Statutory amendments to the motor vehicle license fee laws, Kuchel said, have made a substantial change in the amount of in lieu tax to be distributed to cities and counties.

Under the new law, an apportionment will be made in July and after that dates, apportionments will be sent to cities and counties in June and December.

Well Baby Conferences At Tahoe Are Slated To Start in Near Future

As a part of the Placer County Health Department's program, the Well Baby Conferences have been conducted throughout the county since January. The conferences are conducted by Director Saul Ruby and Public Health Nurse Dorothy Burkhard and are sponsored by the PTAs in the various communities.

The Lake Tahoe area is among the last to have the conferences started, due to the difficulties that attend the bad winter weather. Now that they are to get underway, they will continue at regular and announced intervals throughout the summer and fall. Mothers with children from birth to the first year are advised to bring them in for a check up at least once a month; from two to three years of age, about three times a year; up to the fourth year, twice a year is sufficient, and from four to six, once a year is advised.

The exact time and place for the first of the conferences in the Tahoe region has not yet been determined but it will be in the very near future. Announcement will be made as soon as this is decided upon.

The primary aim of the conference is to reach and advise the mothers of pre-school children who cannot afford to take them to a private physician but health supervision, advice and counsel is being made available to all children from birth to six years of age.

The primary purposes of the conferences are to promote optimum health, prevent disease and reduce mortality of children of Placer County by providing (a) an educational center where parenst may learn what they need to know about keeping their children healthy; (b) the physician's examination of the individual child at regular intervals; (c) the physician's conference with the mother; (d) immunization against communicable diseases; (e) services of the public health nurse; (f) follow-up services of the public health nurse in the home or office. The only stipulation is that they must be residents of Placer County.

Dr. Hinkle is well qualified to perform the duties, having had several years experience as a university instructor.

State Starts Program for Fish Check Dams

SACRAMENTO —(W. N. S.)— A statewide program of check-dam construction to guarantee California fish life an all year supply of water was approved this week by the State Wildlife Conservation Program.

A total of $750,000 of the $9,000,000 wildlife conservation fund was allocated for this and similar projects. The program was developed by Seth Gordon, special consultant to the board, and has the endorsement of the organized sportsmen's groups in the state.

As a starter, the fish and game commission plans to send approximately twenty youthful parolees from the Youth Authority into the El Dorado National Forest to begin initial construction of check-dams in the area. A total of $35,000 is allocated for this specific project and Gordon indicated it is only the start of a several year program that will extend to southern California.

The Donner Trail School now belongs officially to the children. Its dedication on the first of June was a triumph and the first program given by the children for their parents owes it success to the untiring efforts of Mrs. Olia Tiffee, the teacher. Two rows of tots marched upon the stage and went into a folk dance to the tune of "Jimmie Crack Corn". As a great many of the children come from families of Mexican origin, part of the songs rendered were of a Latin nature. Mrs. Lois Hack presented the school with a beautiful silk flag. The largest type of dictionary was presented by the Community Club. This book was presented to the club by Lloyd and Doris Wood in the name of Kenneth Miller, all Ciscoites. Miller, now deceased did not live long enough to witness the building of the new school but his love for the children in the area and his interest in the new edifice prompted the Woods' generosity. Al Bequette, superintendent of schools in Placer County; E. J. O'Rourke, superintendent of the Tahoe-Truckee school district, and other members of the board of education were on hand to make a few remarks. Stanley Walton, of the Donner Trail school board, accepted the gifts in the name of the school. The silver collection, to be turned into a fund for playground equipment, turned up the sizeable sum of $30. Refreshments were served with the older children acting as hosts and passing the plates of food to those who remained sitting in their chairs. Dee Almquist, son of a Norden Southern Pacific employee, was handed his diploma by the superintendent of the district, the first child to graduate from the new Donner Trail Elementary School. In the autograph book which he passed around for signatures, we read the following inscription, "To Dee - May you always be first." With several extra pupils being added to the roll next school opening day, a new teacher will be hired to take care of the extra tots and relieve the hard working Mrs. Tiffee of some of her duties. Jim Sherritt was on hand to record the first school program and after the show was over he played the program back to the children on his wire recorder. Glen Parsons works unceasingly on a baseball diamond for the youngsters and, as we once stated before in this column, these has never been a project in the Donner Trail area that has drawn together the members of the community as has this beautiful new school.

We turn to another wing ding that wasn't solemn. Ladies Night for the Truckee Rotary Club at Beacon Hill Lodge last Saturday night! For the first time in our knowledge of Rotary, this was a real ladies night for the ladies presided. Mary Wolert, honorary Rotarian, was the presiding officer with yours truly acting in the capacity of program chairman. In our committee meeting held before the party. We decided, we ladies, that we would put on a party and entertain the gentlemen of Rotary as we would liue to be entertained. No speeches. Corsages for the men. Each man was met at the door by the sultry, dark beauty of Betty Horak and the Nordic fairness of Margot Nordstrum, and on his lapel was pinned a gardenia. As this was the tenth anniversary of Rotary (Tin Anniversary) all flowrs were in tin cans. Strips of curled tin decorated the tables. The piece de resistance occurred when the ladies marched out of the room and returned with their hats on. These were home made and served to remind their husbands of the day he met them. Should he not be able to guess the significance of the hat, he was promptly fined. You would never guess the ingenuity that was manifested in the making of the bonnets. Margot Nordstrum, for instance, met her husband as he presided over a Viking Ski Club meeting. At that time he had a broken leg. Margot's hat was crowned with a leg done up in a cast on which was tied a gavel. Lucille Cross had a blind date when she met her Charlie. On Lucille's becoming pink spotted veil which was worn on her wedding hat was a pair of dark glasses on the lenses of which was scotch tapes to dates. Mrs. Harold Hodson's hat which won first prize was a huge coolie hat on which flicked a light house operated by a battery. Beer kegs were on bonnets, straw, everything one could imagine. Betty Horak's hat, done up with shelving paper and odd bits, served to remind Bud he met in the Five and Ten Cent store. Gladys Jones' hat complete with telephone reminded Virg Jones that he first heard his wife's voice over a telephone line—she was a telephone operator.

Every bachelor was fitted with a dunce cap tied under his chin by Julia Ciardella. The dunces were lined up against the wall while the ladies paraded in front of them to be judged as to who had the most original hat.

While this was going on, Ernie Tschopp, outgoing president, and Johnny Ciardella, incoming president, fed each other ice cream from huge bowls, a bit messy.

The barbecued hame prepared by Bill Rutherford was out of this world. We think the ladies of Rotary gave the gentlemen of Rotary something to shoot at.

Met the mayor of Ukiah, R. F. Clarke, at Donner Summit Lodge the other evening. Saw Serena Nielsen and Ruth Nottley at Beacon Hill Lodge Sunday morning, up from Truckee to sample Ralph Beaver's buttermilk hotcakes.

The snow is practically gone. The ground is putting on its summer coat of dust but don't be deceived. Cars driving on back roads are being bogged down in the mud that doesn't look like it's there. We who long to hike into the back country pick our way carefully and know that it will take a couple of weeks longer before we can put on our boots. Fishermen look at the rushing Yuba dubiously. No good catches yet, too much water. Just saw Liz Pierson of Kiski hiking down the road. She couldn't wait for the back country to dry out so that she could saunter along beneath the trees or follow the river so she hikes from Kiski to Trailsyde, a good ten miles, along the highway on her first summer jaunt.

The shutters are coming off at Kingvale Park. Noted several houses opened for the first time last Saturday. The road to Ice Lakes is being dragged and fixed up for the summer business that is expected in this little bit of paradise. Had a few in here over the holiday that were preparing to go into The Cedars. Imagine that half of that trip had to be made by foot also.

Elmo Moriano prepares to put in a lawn back of the Beacon Hill property. As this particular spot faces the river and is centered by a lovely barbecue pit, imagine Elmo's back yard is going to be quite a rendevous this summer.

We prepare to take an historical jaunt with Jim Sherritt in a little while. Jim's vast knowledge of the country has unearthed quite a few stories that have never been covered fully and our yearnings for the great outdoors is going to be appeased while we dig up relics and stories of this country that hasn't been scratched journalistically.

The Donner Sportsmen held a meeting recently at which Game Warden Tom Borneman showed an interesting movie of "Deer Life."

Cisco Was Once Center Of Transport System In High Sierra Region

Cisco, in the center of the thriving Donner Summit resort area, was once an important transportation center 80 years ago, according to an old Placer County directory of 1882. The description follows:

"The town of Cisco is in the snowy region of the Sierra, 56 miles northwest of Auburn, and is 5,934 feet above the level of the ocean, and is within two miles of the extreme northern line of the county.

"With the opening of the Donner Lake wagon road in 1864 for travel to the silver mines of Nevada, numerous stations or hotels were established along its line. Among these were Heaton's and Poley's a few miles apart.

"In 1866 a great excitement prevailed regarding the mines and city of Meadow Lake, near the summit of the Sierra, in Nevada County. ith Wthe rush of people thither the two stations mentioned were points of departure from the Donner Lake wagon road, and both aspired to be towns. In June the place at Heaton's was surveyed into lots, and the town named Cisco, in honor of John J. Cisco, United States treasurer. On the 29th of November, 1866, the Central Pacific Railroad was completed and the cars commenced running to this point, and Cisco became a very busy place, crowded with great freight wagons and teams, stages and travelers. This remained the terminus of the road until 1868, when the summit tunnel was completed and road extended out into Nevada. Cisco has a population (1882) of about 100."

Henceforth, they will be turned out of Tahoe-Truckee Unified High School. Will Englehart Sr. was a member of the first student body here back in 1901. Lindsay Opposes Move To Put Vets' Bonus On Ballot Next Year

SACRAMENTO —(W. N. S.)— Assemblyman Francis Lindsay, representing Nevada County and Placer County along with eight others, this week opposed a move to place an amendment to the state constitution on the next ballot so that voters may decide whether the state's 1,500,000 deserve a bonus.

Lindsay voted no on Assemblyman William Rosenthal's constitutional amendment which would guarantee qualified veterans benefits up to $500. It was defeated 42 to 30 with over half the no votes being registered by ex-servicemen assemblymen.

The Rosenthal bill would allow the state to float a $310,000,000 bond issue to finance the vet benefits. Individual veterans would receive $10 for each month of service within the United States and $15 for each month overseas with all benefits adding up to a maximum of $500. For home service exclusively the veteran could receive a bonus of only $250.

Rosenthal contended the bond issue could easily be paid from taxes with the amortization period running over 20 years. The bonds would carry two and a half per cent interest and the Los Angeles assemblyman suggested increased racing taxes as a possible source of revenue.

Traffic Heaviest Killer In Young Age Group

SACRAMENTO —(W. N. S.)— Motor vehicle accident fatalities are the leading cause of all deaths in California from ages one through 34 years, the state department of public health announced in a report issued on Monday.

Prevention of accidents, says the report, has become a public health problem, particularly since "the vast majority of cases of deaths, injuries and property damages are preventable."

"The greatest number of motor vehicle accidents," the report states, "are the result of the driver's carelessness or recklessness."

"Drivers often allow themselves to be distracted by the radio, by conversation or by some passing slene, and often, just a second's distraction will prove fatal. Defective eyesight, hearing or excessive fatigue are contributing causes in some accidents. Probably the greatest contributing cause of driver failure is alcohol, as in 1947, one person in four involved in motor vehicle accidents had been drinking."

The report pointed out that the largest number of accidents involve young drivers, and recommended that "one of the basic ways to lessen the number of motor vehicle accidents now and in the future is to provide good instruction in motor vehicle operation."

"To know how to drive has become almost a necessity," the report said, "and teaching it has as much a place in the curriculum of the high school as the teaching of other skills."

HOSPITAL BOARD NAMES OFFICERS, PUSHES PROJECT

In their first meeting as a duly authorized board, directors of the Tahoe Forest Hospital District met Friday night at the Truckee fire station where they elected permanent officers and adopted a resolution fixing the date for meetings.

Charles R. Heller was named president of the board with Ted D. Barrett as secretary. Robert E. Simon of Bank of America staff was appointed as clerk of the board and will serve temporarily as treasurer. The board fixed the first Friday of each month as the regular meeting date but agreed to meet often at the call of the president for special business to lay plans for the construction of the hospital.

Maps of the site in Gateway Park, together with plans for the hospital tentatively drawn by Architect George Sellon, are being presented to state and federal officials for the purpose of obtaining financial assistance in the project. Documents are also being drawn up calling a bond election to provide the district's share of the cost.

Another meeting will be held in the near future, Heller said, with the architect and attorneys to pave the way for immediate action so that if possible the hospital can be started this year.

Pending legal action, the district is without funds but Supervisor H. G. Loehr is attempting to secure a county loan to help out until the district is placed on the tax rolls and made financially independent.

The site, donated by R. Joseph in memory of his late son, Lt. Lavon Joseph, war hero, has been tentatively approved by all concerned as being ideal for the unit.

Heavy Prize Purses For County's Fair

GRASS VALLEY— Two thousand eighty four awards, 54 championship awards, one grand champion in dairy cattle and between $10,000 and $15,000 in prize money will be open for competition by exhibitors at the seventh annual Nevada County Fair, scheduled for August 25th through August 28th.

Loyle Freeman, manager of the 17th District Agricultural Association, said this year's fair will have many improvements. The flower show is expected to show a 50 per cent increase in exhibition and interest. R. R. Franceschi, Sacramento architect, who is drawing up a master plan for the grounds at Watt Park, expects to have the plan ready for display to the association directors the latter part of this month.

Back at Lake—
Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bresee, who have spent the winter in southern California, have returned to Homewood and Bresee is employed by Floyd Carnell.
